

A bar with a view

By ANA FELICIA DULAY
 Photos By KING RODRIGUEZ,
 CONTRIBUTED PHOTOS

What started out as a private room tucked at the choicest spot of Jack's Ridge Resort has now become one of the city's finest watering holes.

Tap Room at the Jack's Ridge was formerly named BMW, from the initials of three friends.

"This used to be my private music room, tapos I decided to open it to the public," owner Carmelito Mercado says.

After undergoing renovations, a grand reopening was held last July 2 with the ribbon cutting led by Ombudsman Margarito Valenzuela and lawyer Bal Sarabia while the blessing was officiated by Fr. Paul Cuizon.

FANTASTIC spread during the re-opening and blessing.

Tap Room opens daily from 6:00 a.m. to 2:00 a.m. and has

CARMELITO Mercado (center) with Boobs Talaver (extreme left) and Ombudsman Margarito Valenzuela.

FR. PAUL CUIZON officiates the blessing ceremonies while Mr. Mercado and son Karlo (third from left) look on.

Amiable staff of Jack's Ridge.